Appleton Art Center Announces 50th Annual Art in the Park Award Winners

(APPLETON, WI 7/27/20)—Appleton Art Center announced today the award winners for the 50th Annual Art in the Park, which took place around Appleton's City Park on Sunday, July 25. Internationally acclaimed mosaic artist Kim Schonfeld served as judge for Art in The Park. The following cash awards were given:

- Best-of-Show Award was given to painter, Lee Mothes (Kaukauna, WI).
- Best 2-D Award was given to Kae Taylor (Madison, WI) for her batik fabric work.
- Best 3 - D Award was given to John Berglund (South Haven, MN) for his wood carved sculpture and decorative objects.

Honorable Mention awards were given to Kellie Hanson (Wallace, MI), Jenna Larson (Oshkosh, WI), Donald Pekarek (Algonquin, IL), Sharon Stelter (Sherwood, WI), Dennis Wordell (Hortonville, WI).

Art in the Park is held at City Park in Appleton and is organized by the Appleton Art Center, the region's largest visual arts facility. The annual art fair presented with a generous grant from Thrivent Financial for Lutherans serves as an important fundraising event for the organization.
